REGISTRATION, DEPOSIT AND FINAL PAYMENT INFO

A deposit of $300 is required to register for the flex plan. The amount of the deposit goes towards the full amount of the trip. Once a deposit is made, monthly payments are due on the same date the deposit was made. Ex: deposit is paid December 15, all subsequent payments until trip is paid off are due on the 15th of each month. No reservations are confirmed until deposit is received. A missed payment can result in cancellation of your reservation and a forfeit of all monies previously paid. If you believe you will be unable to make a monthly payment by the date due, please contact me immediately at toya@moscrubsbytoya.com to discuss options. If you select a double occupancy flex plan, please be sure that both you and your roommate are able to make timely payments, no exceptions will be given for one roommate who is unable to make monthly payments and it is possible their reservation will be cancelled and replaced with a roommate you do not know. Final payments must be made by August 15th, 2023 with NO exceptions. It is possible that you will end up making 2 payments in August as a result of the final payment due date, so please be sure to plan accordingly.

PAYMENT METHODS

Payment in full and deposits can be made via PayPal or Square. Flex plans are required to be on a recurring monthly plan, where you add your card for automatic payments, otherwise it is your responsibility to make the payment on the invoice on your due date.

CANCELLATIONS AND CHANGES
